An artistic oil painting serves as the background for the entire page. It depicts two violinists, a woman in a red dress and a man in a blue shirt, playing their instruments. They are positioned in the lower half of the frame. The background is a vast, ethereal space with swirling blue and white clouds. A large, vibrant orange and red shape, resembling a flame or a large eye, dominates the upper left and center. Several small, glowing orange spheres are scattered throughout the scene. The overall mood is dreamlike and ethereal.

Welcome to the 2023-2024 season of the Chamber Orchestra of Sarasota. We are excited about our seventh season, with more concerts and a spectacular array of music and guest artists to offer you.

Our orchestra series will be performed exclusively at First Presbyterian Church of Sarasota featuring music by Debussy, Mahler, Chopin, Mozart, Haydn and more, performed by the orchestra with soloists Giuseppina Ciarla, Rafael Ramirez, Cindi Qi, David Qi, Matthew Graybil, and George Maxman.

Our new recital series will be performed at St. Boniface Episcopal Church on Siesta Key, with a concert by Rafael Ramirez and Tina Giorgio in a program featuring music for viola and mandolin, and a concert by Scott Kluksdahl, cello, and Grigorios Zampadas, piano, featuring the cello sonatas of Beethoven.

In addition, there will be a special side-by-side concert at the Venice Performing Arts Center with the Venice High School orchestras. COS principal bassist Christopher Riley and I will both be conducting on this special concert.

In addition, Matthew Graybil and George Maxman will be performing on the Music Archive Series at the Selby Library, and I will be presenting talks on 2024: A Season of Anniversaries at the Selby Library and on the Temple Beth Israel education series. See the presenters' websites for details.

Best wishes, and we look forward to seeing you all season long!

KASIA BRUNIANY

Evocative and compelling works by Kasia Bruniany reveal the intimacy of our physical world. They invite contemplation of places and events where emotions define a singular moment in time. Kasia wrote: "I was inspired to create my "Blue Improvisation" painting by listening to and watching violinists perform. Whenever it was time to glide, they used graceful and pristine lines, but when speed was called for, they executed it with dramatic flare. Combined with the rhythmic movement throughout the body, the beautiful notes formed a vision I wanted to capture." The work graces the cover of this program book. See her work at Palm Avenue Fine Art.

Sarasota's Own Community Radio

It is a community joining together to form a more perfect union; our programming promotes peace, social and economic justice, democracy and sustainability and presents voices often neglected by the mainstream. We embrace diversity and freedom of expression. We are LOCAL News, Talk, Opinion; we are also playing music (of all genres) and spoken arts that do not get air-time on a commercial-driven station. Our LOCAL volunteer programmers are free to share the genre or topics they care to.

+Fogartyville
community media & arts center

Our special gathering place for those who truly appreciate music & community. It is Sarasota's premier listening room, but concerts aren't all we do. In addition to our live concerts, we also host other arts and cultural events, educational events, and sponsor events in the community. We produce over 60 live concerts a year, host over 35 educational events, and provide low-cost space to like-minded non-profit organizations.
